Position Available:
APPRECTICE STAGE MANAGER – OTTAWA

POSITION

Ten-week contract: from June 20 - August 28, 2016

Rehearsals: June 20 to July 20, 2016

Show Run: July 21 to August 21, 2016

Odyssey Theatre is celebrating our 31st season as the National Capital Region's premiere professional open-air theatre. We create award-winning mask and movement-based productions in Ottawa's beautiful Strathcona Park.

An Apprentice Stage Manager is required for our summer production of Carlo Goldoni's hilarious comedy, The Servant of Two Masters, directed by Andy Massingham.

During rehearsal period, the Apprentice will work with the Stage Manager to help facilitate the rehearsal process, and with the Production Manager to assist with production needs, particularly with finding and/or building props. During the performance period, the apprentice will manage the backstage area, including setting up props and facilitating costume changes.

Due to funding requirements we are looking for a person younger than 30 who was a full-time student this past year and will be returning to school as a full-time student in the up-coming academic year.

Please submit a cover letter and resume by May 20, 2016 to:
